

Media has a special responsibility in a democracy to present issues in a fair and unbalanced manner. Sinclair Broadcasting is violating the trust of the American people by showing a one sided program and representating it as news.